Geocities

- Geocities.com was founded in 1994, and in 1999, Geocities was acquired by Yahoo! and it became the third most popular platform;
- In April 2009, Yahoo!, announced that it would shut down Geocities, deleting more than 38 million pages created by users all around the world;
- The Archive team announced a project to archive Geocities pages, resulting in a torrent file;

A living memorial on early Web culture and an effort to maintain an amazingly extensive collection of information

Welcome to OoCities.org

In October 2009 we archived our olden cities of the web: The unique pages on "GeoCities.com" just before they were taken down. Geocities started in 1994 and was the first giant "social network" and one of the most important websites in the world until it was closed on 27.10.2009. Our aim is to save those pages which are worthy and unique scientific sources or are of great public interest as well as those, which are historically interesting or just representing the 90's website culture and style. If you are interested in these old pages feel free to browse around. Please note: it will be a while until all pages are sorted, complete and free of any spam contents! In case you are searching for your own personal site, there is a small chance that we have it but have not put it online yet. In case you want your own page, email or picture to be removed, contact us as well. For any questions, read our FAQ or contact us at oocities {AT} gmail {DOT} com

GeoCities Neighborhoods

Until 1999, GeoCities pages were sorted into categories using the following scheme: GeoCities.com/neighborhood/number starting with number 1000 and counting up to 9999. Thus each neighborhood (=category) or subneighborhood contains up to 9000 pages. (Full list of GeoCities Subneighborhoods)

Area51	::: Science fiction & fantasy
Athens	::: Teaching, education, philosophy, reading, writing
Augusta	::: Golf
Baja	::: Off-road & adventure travel
BourbonStreet	::: Jazz, New Orleans, Cajun food, Southern United States topics
CapeCanaveral	::: Science, mathematics, aviation, technology, engineering,
CapitolHill	::: Government and Politics

SITE CLOSING!
 Geocities, which hosts this site, is closing in October. I started this Salvage 1 site 10 years ago...not sure if I am going to find another home for it or not. Keep checking around after October. It may pop up somewhere!

Once upon a time, a junkman had a dream...

"I'm gonna build a spaceship, go to the moon, salvage all the junk that's up there, bring it back and sell it."

So he put together a team. An ex-astronaut...a fuel expert...they built a rocketship...

And they went to the moon. Who knows what they'll do next?

Salvage 1 was a short-lived television series but I have never forgotten it. You may remember it as "that show where a guy built a spaceship out of junk and flew to the moon". Well, it began as a two-hour television movie aired in January, 1979 starring Andy Griffith as Harry Broderick, the proprietor of Jettison Scrap and Salvage Company.

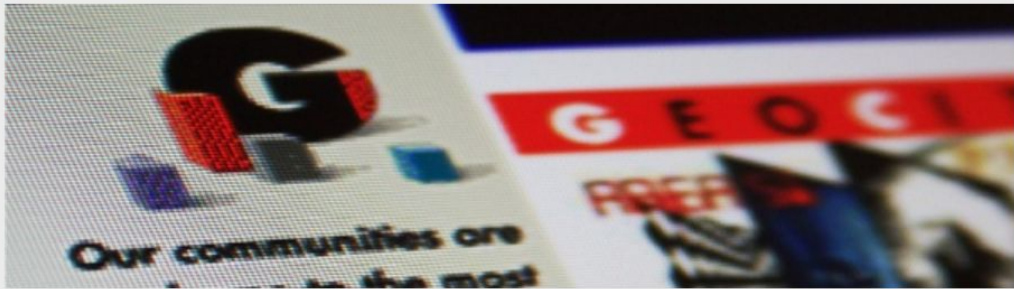

Please mind:
 Every day emergencies like war or drought in Yemen, Somalia and the World put millions of people in danger to die of hunger. If we donate, then we can help saving lives.

GeoCities was an important outlet for personal expression on the Web for almost 15 years, but was discontinued on October 26, 2009. On July 2009 Yahoo! Inc. announced that the popular free hosting service Yahoo! GeoCities was closing down. On October 26th all the existing web pages were finally deleted from Yahoo's servers. Since then, we have been working hard to recover hundreds of thousands of sites and we keep on working on the task of recovering as much of the History of the Internet as we possibly can.

Now you can start editing your site. If you found your site in our online archive you can start editing it by just following the instructions in the Sign Up Page and registering a user.

Home Album Links Músicos

Bem vindo à Página Oficial dos 1000Agres!

1000Agres é uma banda formada há cerca de 3 anos que tem como objectivo o estudo da relação da música portuguesa com a música africana.

1000Agres são quatro músicos que vos propõem um espectáculo de cerca de duas horas que intitularam "1000Agres do Mar" e que consiste numa original abordagem aos diversos temas do património musical destas duas culturas.

Esse mar que nos separa mas que ao mesmo tempo foi a estrada para o encontro. África, que nos influenciou e que foi influenciada, conta-nos tantas histórias de rara beleza que nos fascina interiormente e Portugal que ao dar novos mundos ao mundo, foi construindo o seu património musical tão imensamente variado num país geograficamente tão pequeno.

Search for GeoCities sites

Search

Search or browse to find interesting pages created by Yahoo! GeoCities members. Or try our advanced search.

Steps Algorithm

1. Unzip all files. Examples:
 - a. Lowercase → YAHOOIDS → a → a → aa_chan01
 - b. Subsites → YAHOOIDS → geocities → uk.geocities.com → a_arif_ali
2. For each subfile (e.g., aa_chan01):
 - a. Get the new timestamp from the last update of the files inside in each folder (e.g., 2009 - 11 - 05).
 - b. `warcit --fixed-dt timestamp http://www.geocities.com/ path_folder`.
 - i. If there is a subsite, “http://www.geocities.com/” will be replace by “http://uk.geocities.com/”.
3. Merge each individual WARC file and removing the “revisit” records since will have the current timestamp (i.e., 2021).
